

A brief sketch of the history of Virgil T. Golden Funeral Service

In October of 1949, a new business opened its doors in Salem, with the goal of providing the very best in warm, personal service at a family's most difficult time. It was named Virgil T. Golden Company Mortuary. The original partnership, later changed to Virgil T. Golden Funeral Service, was founded by Virgil T. Golden, a Salem area funeral director for 22 years and his wife, Grace S. Golden, a registered nurse.

Virgil Golden was well known and respected in the Salem community by the time Virgil T. Golden Funeral Service opened. Virgil served for many years as a Deputy Marion County Coroner, and had been associated with the funeral industry for twenty-two years in 1949. Virgil's wife Grace, a registered nurse, helped provide a welcome and caring feeling to the families Goldens served.

Through the years, Goldens has upheld the ideals of its founders and continues to be at the forefront of the funeral service industry. With the remodeling of our building, Goldens now offer full cremation service, being one of the few funeral homes in the Willamette Valley with state-of-the-art crematoriums. Oakleaf Crematory, located in within our building was licensed and opened in December 1999. This provides us with the ability to maintain complete control of the cremation process. Please visit our website for information, to view our building or to view different items available for purchase.

Whatever you desire, Goldens is committed to helping you during your time of need.

As our founder Virgil T. Golden said, "The impossible only takes a moment longer."
